Judge Pike's Court

The French kids who stole the "Scotch" at the summer camp in North Chatham, are now "in Dutch." They admitted the theft of two revolvers, and taking nine bottles of gin "Scotch" and who, but one of the juvenile culprits admitted it was not so bad as there was plenty more left: all of which leads us to believe that when our highbrow city friends are vacationing there is some thing wrong in North Chatham, besides the "Scotch" Judge Pike thought a trip to the jail for the youthful law breakers, might be beneficial and educational.

Just before Judge Pike was called to court when "Dead-eye Dick" was arrested by our local "Hawshaw" for passing a check from ten to eighty dollars.

WILLIAM presented his "phony" check to about every trader in town, but it was not for our trusting townsman, Harold McKean, to exchange a bundle of money for a check of the realm for Judge's bogus paper, which goes to show that Harold was not living up to the part of his name, that day.

When the error was discovered in time, the check was apprehended before the freight left for Alabama, and the man together with his side arms and money, were turned over to our town-bey, F. E. Haley, for safe keeping.

As the prisoner has several charges against him it looks as though he would have an extended vacation in a back mansion where stripes are as plentiful as checks.

When "Boner" is bothered with static his language is somewhat emphatic. Though his words are well chosen by the sound, we're supposed to be sure they are also a bit ungrammatical.

The Red Men's Ball was a swell event. Though in our roll it caused a dent, the "Hudson" in the march looked fine. More so, with the editor in line.

The creature of countless eyes. When he passed by and caused the sighs, he doubt a score were broken hearts. When the march was over and the "Hudson" departed but it didn't seem to the editor, fair (as the young men said in deep despair) to absorb the limelight, so I'll tell you. He rushed down stairs and absorbed the stew.

CROSS-WORD PUZZLE NO. 65

HOW TO SOLVE A CROSS-WORD PUZZLE

When the correct letters are placed in the white spaces this puzzle will spell words both vertically and horizontally. The first letter in each word is indicated by a number, which refers to the definition listed below the puzzle. Thus No. 1 under the column headed "horizontal" defines a word which will fill the white spaces to the first black square to the right, and a number under "vertical" defines a word which will fill the white squares to the next black one below. No letters go in the black spaces. All words used are dictionary words, except proper names. Abbreviations, slang, initials, technical terms and obsolete forms are indicated in the definitions.

1-4 LESSON 1-41-John 13:17-29; 29:1-10
1-5 GOLDEN TEXT-Therefore doth my Father love me, because I lay down my life that I may take it again.-John 10:17
1-6 PRIMARY TOPIC-Jesus Dies and Rises From the Dead.
1-7 JUNIOR TOPIC-Jesus Dies and Rises From the Dead.
1-8 INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC-Jesus Dies and Rises From the Dead.
1-9 YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC-Christ Dying for Our Sins and Rising Again for Our Justification.

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions and activities related to the project. It emphasizes the need for transparency and accountability in financial management.

It was on a hill called in Latin Calvary, in Hebrew Golgotha, which in shape resembled a skull.

2. His companions.

Two malefactors (v. 18, cf. Luke 23:32).

This shows how completely Jesus was identified with sinners.

3. The inscription over Him (v. 19, 20).

It was customary to place an inscription over the cross stating the crime for which the victim suffered.

4. Gambling for the garments of Jesus (vv. 23, 24).

This is an exhibition of how people's hearts may be as cold as iron to them who are in the present pain under the

(1) "Behold thy son"—"Behold thy mother" (vv. 25, 26).

In this crucial hour He found His own bitter anguish and interest Himself in those He loved. Though He was leaving the earth and its struggles, He made provision for the dear ones left behind.

(2) "I thirst" (v. 27).

As the sinner's representative, He suffered not only untold agony of mind, but of body as well.

of meaning in these words, they do not doubt indicate (a) that the eulogies and indignities heaped upon Him were at an end.

(3) His death (vv. 26).

His death was voluntary. With full consciousness that all things which He had come to do had now been accomplished, He dismissed His spirit.

11. The Resurrection of Jesus (20: 1-29).

1. The empty tomb (vv. 1-10).

(1) The testimony of Mary Magdalene (vv. 1, 2).

This woman, out of whom Jesus had cast the demon (Mark 16: 9; Luke 8: 20), announced the fact of the empty tomb to Peter and John.

(2) Personal investigation by Peter and John (vv. 3-10).

The news of the empty tomb which Mary brought with breathless haste so moved John and Peter that they both ran to investigate.

Investigations of the risen

(a) Mary weeping at the empty tomb (vv. 11).

Peter and John went home, but Mary could not—she stood weeping. She should have been rejoicing that the tomb was empty, for the empty tomb was an eloquent proof of His messiahship and deity.

(b) Mary questioned by the angels (vv. 12, 13).

She viewed through her tears angels at the tomb, who inquired the cause of her sorrow.

(c) Jesus reveals Himself to Mary (vv. 12, 13).

She first saw angels, and then her eyes lightened upon the Lord. She did not recognize Him in His resurrection body. His voice was familiar to her. As soon as her name was called she recognized Him and worshipped at His feet.

(d) Jesus forbids her to touch Him

Besides, there was no time for such familiarity while the disciples were in darkness. "Go tell my brethren," was the message for her to carry.

(e) Mary's testimony (v. 1-1).

(2) To the disciples (vv. 19-20).

(a) When Thomas was absent (vv. 19-20).

He came to them with the message of peace (v. 19). Showed His hands and side (v. 20). Commissioned them (v. 21) and bestowed upon them the Holy Spirit (v. 22).

To Make True the Dream

The most valuable possession which Christianity holds for me is this conviction: That the task is unfinished, the conflict is still on, and that it is my business to invest my life in such a way as to make true the dream of the Son of Man.—Edward A. Steiner.

Circle Suppers—Lenten Services—Crook River Outing Club.

On Friday night the carnival play is to be repeated at the Grange Hall, South Waterford. It is hoped that a large number who failed to see the play, "Deacon Dubbs," at its first booking will avail themselves of this opportunity.

Next week there will be two Lenten suppers. On Tuesday night, at North Waterford, and on Thursday night, at East Stonham. The service at Albany is to be held on Thursday of this week.

The Famous Players, North Waterford, met on Tuesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Bull. There they outlined the organization of "The Crooked River Outing Club." One of the chief concerns of this organization will be the supporting of the winter carnivals of the following years. The officers elected were:

Pres.—Ralph Knight.
V. Pres.—W. L. B. B.
Sec.—Mrs. Mary Holt.
Treas.—Baris Libby.

Various committees were also outlined by those present, and an executive committee was named. Any of the above named would be glad to receive any suggestions that might be given for a bigger and better carnival in 1927.

Certainly the hearts of all in the United Parish go out in sympathy to Mrs. Lee Andrews and her boys in their bereavement.

STATE ROAD HEARING

Two hearings were held by the state highway commission at Augusta, Friday, on petitions for the designation of state highways in this section of the state. One of the proposed roads is that from Norway to Bridgton by way of the "twin bridges" and Harrison. The case for this road was presented under the direction of Percy F. Ripley of South Paris, and several spoke in favor of the road. R. E. Pinkham and P. E. Hayes, selectmen of Waterford, said that in their opinion the people would be better served if the road went through Waterford instead of going through Otisfield and Harrison.

The other road asked for goes from near Poland Corner westward through Oasco and Naples to connect with the Roosevelt Trail. Hiram W. Ricker of Poland led the forces which asked for this road.

The highway commission took the matter under advisement at the close of the hearing.
